

INTRODUCTION TO QUILT JUDGING

Cobblestone Quilters Guild is pleased to be hosting a two-day seminar taught by certified judges Lorraine Covington and Kate Eelkema of the National Association of Certified Quilt Judges, www.nacqj.com.

This class is a wonderful opportunity for:

- Quilters who want to improve their skills
- Quilters who are intrigued by the judging process
- Quilters who may want to become quilt show judges
- Show organizers who are in charge of the judging process

The class is 12-13 hours in length, involving TWO FULL days of instruction through lectures, visuals, and hands on judging for the students. Student participation is a requirement. Students will be asked to bring 3-5 quilts to be used in sample judging experiences and will receive a notebook of information on all areas covered.

The class will be held on Friday and Saturday, November 10 and 11, 2017 at Yeamans Park Presbyterian Church, 5931 Murray Drive, Hanahan, SC. The church is easily accessed from interstate 26.

The class fee is $220 for the two-day interactive workshop. An additional fee of $15 for the class notebook will be collected from the instructors at the time of the class. Coffee, tea and water and light snacks will be provided.

This class does not guarantee national judging certification, but with the experience gained during these two days, plus the notebook of helpful information for future reference and study, interested quilters will have an excellent foundation for entering the certification process, and/or conducting highly successful quilt shows.

Interested parties should contact Karen Kendo at kkendo52@gmail.com for additional information. To register please remit check for $220 payable to Cobblestone Quilters Guild to Karen Kendo at 743 E. Main St., Harleyville, SC 29448.
