Bio

Dee has been quilting for over thirty years. Her award winning quilts have been show nationally and have been published in books, magazines and calendars.

Her first love is scrap quilts and she is always looking for new ways to express herself through fabric. When she discovered the fascinating world of English Paper Piecing, she knew she just had to give it a go! This is an age-old tradition of hand piecing that takes precision to perfection.

By using today's fabulous fabrics and using different geometrical shapes we can create the most fascinating kaleidoscopic effects in our quilts. Come and discover the wonder that awaits!

Class Description

Have you seen these amazing Millefiori quilts and dreamed of making one? Well then, this is the class for you!

You will learn English Paper Piecing all done by hand. I will be using the "La Passacaglia" quilt for our inspiration. I will share with you my methods, tips and techniques for making your own templates and how to successfully join them together flawlessly. You will learn to look at fabric with a new eye toward fussy cutting. You will be making a fabulous 14" by 14" kaleidoscopic rosette in this class.

This introduction into English Paper Piecing will allow you to decide to stop with just one, or to continue with this fascinating journey of magical kaleidoscopes.

What you learn in this class will allow you to face ANY English Paper Piecing project with confidence. If you are currently working on any English Paper Piecing project, please bring it to class and join us.

This class is geared toward the confident beginner up to the experienced sewer.

WARNING Very contagious and addictive!
