Bio

Melissa has been enjoying fabric and a sewing machine since childhood. Her Mom is a master of all things crafty and a great example and encouragement to Melissa. Melissa began her stitching adventure making Barbie doll clothes for her baby sister. She enjoyed embroidering pillow cases by hand with her grandmother and sitting at the quilt frame at her granny's house. Melissa's love of quilting opened the door for her to obtain a job in a local quilt shop ten years ago. While working at the quilt shop, she began teaching classes where students learned a variety of techniques. She has also developed quilt and purse patterns. Her latest pattern is the Four-Hour Tuffet. Her passion for crafting and teaching quilting at retreats and guilds has lead her to open a retreat house called "The Happy Cottage" which is located in Murrells Inlet, South Carolina
